You are multi-faceted, gifted, and skilled in various professions. Why is being an Actress your greatest passion?

Acting creates a space of vulnerability where I am free to explore all emotions...

DOMINIQUE NICOLE

Actress, Producer,
Creative Director

DOMINIQUE NICOLE

ACTRESS, PRODUCER, CREATIVE DIRECTOR

Dominique Nicole and I have become good friends. Although she is multi-faceted, gifted, and skilled in many areas, her passion for Acting is profoundly unwavering. Recently, I asked Dominique these 2 questions:

You're good at many things. Why is being an Actress your main passion?

Acting is my way of studying humanity. I was drawn to this form of art out of a deep desire to understand human behavior. Acting creates a space of vulnerability where I am free to explore all emotions. This is a place where curiosity, presence, and storytelling intersect. It is both an art form and a form of living life through different perspectives.

As an actress, I am most compelled to portray women who are powerful yet grounded, whose strength is expressed through presence. I am drawn to complexity, to decisiveness, to women who are fully anchored in their authenticity. Their power is internal, intentional, and quietly commanding.

I asked if you could play the lead in biopics for 3 historic women, who would they be? You said Diana Ross, Angela Bassett, and Josephine Baker. Why?

Josephine Baker profoundly inspires me because she embodied freedom, courage, and reinvention. She used performance not only as expression, but as a pathway to choose to live beyond imposed expectations.

I love Diana Ross. She represents eloquence at its highest form. Her discipline, gravitas, and intentionality reshaped what power and femininity looks like. Even now, 2026, she continues to navigate identity with quiet authority, creating a legacy that continues to guide us as artists.

Angela Bassett embodies strength with integrity and depth. Her body of work is emotionally disciplined and profoundly truthful. I am drawn to that level of precision and honesty. I would be honored to portray Angela Bassett in a biographical role.

BVLGARI

CHANEL

Your poses by the beautiful CHANEL store on Rodeo Drive were both unique and very interesting. What were your thoughts during that photo shoot?

There is a quiet power in stillness.

A full-page portrait of actress Dominique Nicole. She has long, straight black hair and is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. She is wearing a black, ribbed turtleneck sweater. Her right hand is raised, with her fingers resting near her chin. Her fingernails are painted a vibrant red. The background is a dark, solid color.

2026 CLIVE DAVIS PRE-GRAMMY GALA

Rogee Rogers:

So, Dominique, talking about Legacy, I saw that photographer, Corinthian Kelly, took beautiful photos of you at the Clive Davies Pre-Grammy Gala in Beverly Hills.

What are your thoughts on legacy as you have mingled with people who've built a legacy in American culture, people like Babyface (music), Gayle King (media), and Van Jones (news & politics)?

Dominique Nicole:

Different paths, one truth. Legacy is alignment lived with excellence, influence that outlasts the moment, and impact that remains in its essence for generations to come. The truth is that what God authors, time cannot erase.

Babyface's legacy has shaped generations of harmony and sound. As an icon with quiet mastery, Babyface has made timeless contributions to musicians and entertainers globally.

Gayle King's legacy leads with integrity, calm authority, and truth. Her presence elevates every conversation she enters.

Van Jones' legacy brings faith, justice, and humanity into hard spaces.

MARILYN MONTERO

SUBCONSCIOUS FREQUENCY ARCHITECT

MARILYN MONTERO

SUBCONSCIOUS FREQUENCY ARCHITECT

A city of luxury, opulence, and excellence, Beverly Hills is home to industry leaderships including Fashion, Beauty, Medicine, Food, Education, and Entertainment. Marilyn Montero brings subconscious frequency architecture into the Beverly Hills ecosystem through her ongoing, mind-opening “Frequency Dynasty Salon Dinner” series.

I have attended 2 of her events, and both times, after Marilyn’s engaging presentation, I left feeling enlightened and motivated. Here are a couple of questions I recently asked Marilyn.

What is the meaning of your title: Subconscious Frequency Architect?

The title reflects how I understand human transformation. The subconscious is the system running beneath conscious awareness, and frequency refers to the emotional and energetic state shaping a person’s experience. Architect represents my role in identifying and redesigning that internal structure so it can support greater clarity, stability, and expansion.

You have an office in Laguna Beach and you are available online. Why did you select to open an office in the City of Beverly Hills?

Opening a Beverly Hills office was a natural expansion of my work. I reached a level of mastery where the depth and precision of what I offer needed a larger platform. Beverly Hills aligns with people who are ready for efficient, high-level transformation, making it the right environment for this phase of my work.

JOYCE MARIE PARTISE

47 YEARS BEVERLY HILLS BUSINESS LEGACY

JOYCE MARIE PARTISE

Skincare Pioneer * Singer * Civic Leader

For nearly five decades, Joyce Marie Partise has been one of the most dynamic forces in Beverly Hills. Her luxury skincare salon, JOYCE MARIE OF BEVERLY HILLS, has been a destination for discerning clients since 1979.

Her jazz performances have captivated audiences worldwide — her “SWAY” music video has surpassed 18 million views on YouTube, proof that this Beverly Hills icon is now a global sensation. Joyce’s community activism has delivered real results, successfully pushing the City of Beverly Hills to implement street signage and parking meter reforms that improved daily life for residents and visitors alike.

I recently sat down with Joyce Marie Partise to talk about her legendary skincare practice — and what keeps her passionate after all these years.

You were one of the very first licensed Estheticians in California.
What was that like?

I received my license in 1979 — I was number 436 in the entire state. Today there are over 100,000. I also became one of Dermalogica’s original distributors in 1983, before anyone knew the name. I’ve been at the forefront of this industry from the very beginning.

The skincare world has transformed since then.
What sets your approach apart?

Everything has evolved — the peels, the technology, and the machines. When I started, Glycolic Acid didn’t even exist. My salon has the latest technology, but what my clients treasure most is my signature European deep-cleansing facial. They leave relaxed, rejuvenated, and beautified. That hands-on artistry is what has kept people coming back for decades.

What’s it like working steps from Rodeo Drive?

It’s magic. My clients step out of this serene treatment room into the energy of Beverly Hills — the shopping, the dining, and the celebrity sightings. There’s nowhere else like it.

MIRA VICTOR

FILM JOURNALIST / FILMMAKER

My good friend, Egyptian-American, Film Journalist and Filmmaker, Mira Victor took us to the 11th Asian World Film Festival in Culver City in November 2025. On the topic of legacy, we discussed Michael Jai White who received the Bruce Lee award. The festival also awarded Lucy Liu, Lee Byung-hun, among others.

Rogee: Hey Mira. How are you?

Mira: How are you, Rogee? I'm very proud of what you're doing and thank you so much for inviting me to your beautiful magazine.

I'm gonna go straight to Michael Jai White. You were there that day when he received the Bruce Lee Award. What was it like?

He was very happy and very humble. I found out later that he is the first non-Asian to receive this award. Bruce Lee is a big name and Michael Jai White is a big name, so this award is a big deal. Meeting with him, he was really nice. He was very proud of himself to receive the award. He was welcoming and giving time to everyone as they requested to take pictures with him.

Nice. I love this picture of you and Michael Jai White. The Festival was 11 days and they gave out other awards. One of my favorite actresses, Lucy Liu, also received an award. Where you there?

She's a beautiful lady and she deserved that award. I wasn't there that day because I was filming my show "ASK MIRA," which airs globally on CSAT TV. Congratulations to Lucy Liu on receiving that prestigious AWFF award.

Yeah. Lucy Liu won the Snow Leopard Award for Outstanding Cinematic Achievement. Lee Byung-hun also won an award.

Yeah. Such a nice guy. Lee was very excited to receive the award. I watched his movie. Also, I want to say thank you to my dear friend and festival director, Georges Chamchoum.

I met Georges Chamchoum. Great man. So Mira, I had asked you to review one of the movies for us. Have you decided?

Yes. I will review the "LOVE AND KARMA" movie...

Meeting Michael Jai White at the 2025 Asian World Film Festival was a truly memorable moment. As the recipient of the prestigious Bruce Lee Award, he came across as genuinely humble and gracious—approachable, kind, and deeply sincere. A true icon whose humanity is as powerful as his legacy.

FILM FESTIVAL

Actress Lucy Liu received the Snow Leopard Award for Outstanding Cinematic Achievement. She received this recognition for her work in the film Rosemead.

MOVIE REVIEW

LOVE & KARMA

BY MIRA VICTOR

It was one of those magical nights at the Asian World Film Festival in November 2025, and the film that stayed with me was LOVE & KARMA, a Philippine movie based on a true story.

The story opens with a woman in her late forties, recently divorced, raising a teenage daughter with whom she has little emotional connection. The struggle is immediate and real. Yet the quiet strength and presence of the lead actress keeps the audience fully engaged.

Encouraged by her friends, she travels to the Philippines. There, she unexpectedly reunites with her first crush. Their connection feels natural and sincere. He is deeply religious, grounded, and disciplined — a rare kind of man. From that moment, love unfolds in a way that is both gentle and powerful. I won't spoil the ending for you, but the journey in this movie, LOVE & KARMA, leaves clear lessons:

Age does not limit love or opportunity.
Growth begins the moment when curiosity replaces fear.

Courage lives outside the comfort zone —
that's where life's wonders happen.

True men still exist.
Some treasures require patience and faith to uncover.

Every woman carries an inner power;
when released, she becomes unstoppable.

Above all, LOVE & KARMA reminds us that love itself can create miracles.

They say “a picture is worth a thousand words.” I agree 100%. It’s always exciting to meet individuals, like Corinthian Kelly, who are gifted at capturing picturesque moments. I want to introduce you to Corinthian and his work around town Beverly Hills and Hollywood. Here are two of several questions I asked him in a recent conversation:

Why and how did you get into photography?

From a very young age, 11 or 12 years old, I always carried a camera with me. I was fascinated by the clicking of the camera, capturing the moment, making people pose, and making them smile. Back then it was more so film -- those $14.99 cameras from CVS. Once the film was processed, I loved seeing the pictures and the joy that blossomed in the eyes of the people as they saw themselves. It was exciting.

Around 18 to 19 years old, I moved to Japan where I finally bought a Nikon F80. That’s when all the crazy good feeling of just having a real, a professional camera hit me. I took pictures for days, for weeks, around Japan. That was true joy -- taking pictures in the moment.

Last week, did you attend the 2026 Golden Globe Awards?

Yes; and I got plenty of photos. I saw Kate Hudson, Michael B. Jordan, Steve Martin, Bill Maher, Marlon Mayans, Wanda Sykes, Lee Byung-hun, Damson Idris, Ethan Hawke and many other Stars. It was a sight to see -- the absolutely stunning atmosphere -- fashions from the shoes on to the nails, on to the hair, on to the tie, the hand bags; and of course beautiful, happy, graceful people. In the following pages, I share photos from the Golden Globes and from around town Beverly Hills.

ETHAN HAWKE + JOCELYN ELIZABETH

ERIC ESTRADA + JOCELYN ELIZABETH

Rogee Rogers:

Jocelyn, what was it like for you, being dressed, photographed, and admired by the world, in a JACOB MEIR dress at the Golden Globes, here in Beverly Hills?

Jocelyn Elizabeth:

I think, for me, it was more special than the average woman. 12 years ago, I worked with/for Jacob Meir at his shop in Hollywood. So, Jacob is more than a friend, he is a mentor in the fashion world for me. Every single time I have put on a JACOB MEIR gown, I left like Cinderella; and the 2026 Golden Globes was just that -- a Cinderella moment. At home, it was my 5 babies yelling "MOM," and at the Golden Globes, it was everyone yelling "JOCELYN." It was an experience I will use to continuously remind myself that anything is possible with God.

Rogee Rogers:

Corinthian, you took the photo of Jocelyn Elizabeth and Ethan Hawke, the actor, at the 2026 Golden Globes. Tell me more about your experience.

Corinthian Kelly:

I love this JACOB MEIR dress. Jocelyn Elizabeth, did a fantastic job with her size in it, just her great enthusiastic attitude. No one else could have worn that dress better than she did. When I saw her, I had to ask, "Who made this dress?" This dress was fantastic for her.

Rogee Rogers:

Jacob Meir is an acquaintance of mine. I called Jacob to ask him about this dress. Here's a paraphrase of what he told me.

Jacob Meir:

That dress was a design of positivity for the people of Ukraine. It's part of a Floral Collection which I unveiled at the 2023 Cannes Film Festival at a fundraiser for Ukraine with Sharon Stone and Al Pacino.

Cosmopolitan's "Best Dressed" at the Golden Globes has Jocelyn Elizabeth number 4.

AROUND TOWN BEVERLY HILLS

Rogee Rogers:
 Corinthian, the cover of this magazine is absolutely beautiful. You did a great job at the photoshoot with Dominique Nicole. How did you capture such great photos of her on Rodeo Drive?

Corinthian Kelly:
 With the fabulous Dominique Nicole, it was a natural shooting Experience. She was just very natural, very smooth, easy-going and melodic. The shoot was classy and, luxurious. It was a beautiful experience to work with and to shoot such a dynamic person.

Rogee Rogers:
 Dominique, you put this look together. What was the creative process?

Dominique Nicole:
 The creative direction I curated with divine intention; each element enhanced the wardrobe, beauty, and cinematic noir. The final imagery felt timeless, elegant, cohesive, and aligned with the essence of luxury.

Makeup by Ray Sanchez delivered a luminous refined finish that elevated the look with modern Beverly Hills sophistication.
